

The International Headache Congress

IHS and EHF

8-12 SEPTEMBER 2021

Teaching Courses

8 September 2021

Take a look at the Teaching Courses which will be offered on the first congress day of the International Headache Congress 2021. Please note that Teaching Courses 3 and 9 come as a package, if you book one of them you can attend the other one free of charge.

Follow us on social media:

08:30-10:00 Teaching Course 1 – Paediatric and adolescent headache
 Chair Aynur Özge, TR
 Lectures Impact of hormones in adolescence – Do they change the brain? Marta Torres-Ferrus, ES
 Emergency headache care in children Amy Gelfand, US
 Practice guideline update Andrew Hershey, US

08:30-10:00 Teaching Course 2 – Headache research update and a look into the future
 Chair Marta Vila-Pueyo, GB
 Lectures Behavior animal models in headache research Hayrunnisa Bolay, TR
 Structural and Functional Imaging in Headache – an Update on Research Findings Catherine Chong, US

08:30-10:00 Teaching Course 9 – Clinical cases on secondary headaches: real world perspectives
 Chair Charles Siow, SG
 Lectures Red flags and most common secondary headaches Byung-Kun Kim, KR
 Clinical diagnostics and technical investigations Bronwyn Jenkins, AU
 High and low pressure headaches, vascular headaches Shuu-Jiun Wang, TW

10:30-12:00 Teaching Course 5 – Advance practice providers/nurses teaching course
 Chair Annette Vangaa Rasmussen, DK
 Lectures The role of the nurse in headache care Susie Lagrata, DK
 Headache education for patients – Tips and tricks Carol Barch, US
 Advanced treatments for headache – Anti-CGRP MABs, OnabotulinumtoxinA, emergency room Andreas Gantenbein, CH

10:30-12:00 Teaching Course 6 – Nonpharmacologic headache treatment: case-based
 Chair Dawn C. Buse, US
 Lectures Lifestyle management Mansoureh Togha, IR
 Biobehavioral therapies Rebecca Erwin Wells, US
 Neuromodulation Jose Miguel Lainez, ES

10:30-12:00 Teaching Course 7 – Preclinical science primer for the clinician
 Chair Andrew Charles, US
 Lectures Update on genetics and possible clinical impact Arn van den Maagdenberg, NL
 Mapping the migraine brain – Where is it taking us? Laura Fischer-Schulte, DE Neurophysiological tests in migraine – What can we learn? Delphine Magis, BE

10:30-12:00 Teaching Course 8 – Publishing and statistical issues in headache
 Chair Elizabeth Loder, US
 Lectures Editors perspective – How to properly select papers Rebecca Burch, US
 Endpoints, safety, placebo – How not to misuse data Dana Turner, US
 How can we improve the impact that headache has? Julio Pascual, ES

18:45-20:15 Teaching Course 3 – Clinical cases on secondary headaches – Real world perspectives
 Chair Fayyaz Ahmed, GB
 Lectures Red flags and most common secondary headaches Karina Velez, MX
 Clinical diagnostics and technical investigations Sait Ashina, US
 High and low pressure headaches, vascular headaches Yared Zenebe Zewde, ET

18:45-20:15 Teaching Course 4 – Ethical issues in headache medicine
 Chair Allan Purdy, CA
 Lectures Professional ethics for headache medicine practitioners Morris Levin, US
 Research and publication ethics in headache medicine Thomas Ward, US
 Ethical issues involving diversity, equity and inclusion in headache Cynthia Armand, US

VIRTUAL